SHOPPING Salsa store

Unless you've got Beyonce's entourage to help, there's nothing glamorous about dragging a caravan of suitcases on holiday. Salsa's do-it-all 'Feel' top can be worn as a shirt, skirt or dress, and comes in five colours. Who needs high-maintenance when you can get away with packing only a handbag? JEWELLERY

Dehab Gallery

This new gallery proves that art isn't limited to black and white photos and still life paintings. A boutique promoting local artists and jewellery designers, it features a permanent collection as well as temporary exhibitions. The themed shows change every six weeks, and everything on display is for sale.

JEWELLERY

Nada G

Don't try to hold her down: our own Nada G is poised to take over the US. She launched several new sparklers for summer, and they're now available in Beirut, Chicago and Miami. Stock up on statement pieces soon – once Hollywood catches wind of her designs, they might be harder to come by.

SHOPPING

Pal Zileri

No one's ever accused a man of being too well dressed, so don't let the Beirut heat catch you dishevelled. This Italian brand's summer collection is inspired by the '60s movie 'Purple Noon' (the original 'The Talented Mr. Ripley'), so look out for tennis-style cardigans and classic striped polo shirts fit for a day on the yacht.

SHOPPING

Memento

Those photos aren't doing anyone any good just sitting on your hard drive, so put them in a hardcover book where everyone can enjoy them. The publishing process is easy: just send your photos, choose your paper and add your text. Memento will have a personalised book ready in less than two weeks.

Starting at LL30,000 at Memento (03 929662) 1st Flr, Palm Plaza Center, Mtayleb. www.memento-lb.com
