"Boy Meets Girl is all about the boyish side in me, expressed through the tight bands and the fun oversized wires."

— Nada Ghazal

BOY MEETS GIRL

With winter's gloomy weather taking its toll, the remedy lies in Nada G's oversized coiled rings and earrings, available in a variety of sizes and either with or without diamonds. The award-winning jeweler revealed her Boy Meets Girl collection last month, adding a masculine touch to her timelessly elegant designs. ■

NADA G BOUTIQUE CELEBRATION

On December 13, 2013, a cocktail party was held at Nada G boutique in Beirut Souks, where hundreds of people gathered in festivity to celebrate the brand's consecutive years of achievements. The highlight of 2013 was when Nada G was chosen to be part of the "Precious Jewels Salon" at Neiman Marcus, USA. Founder and designer Nada Ghazal took this opportunity to reveal one of her newest collections: Boy Meets Girl. "It's all about the boyish side in me, expressed through the tight bands and the fun oversized wires," explained the designer. 1
