You Say

U Magazine is a relief. The international magazines in Beirut describe the fashion and what's available OUTSIDE. But with U Magazine, I get the most stylish information and what's available HERE so I can actually find what I read about. Thanks a lot for this original idea! Zeina

Needless to say, you have nailed the "first impressions" cliché. From the moment I saw the magazine on the rack at the supermarket I fell in love with it. The articles are superb, starting with the Editor's Letter, to "Keeping Up With My Czech Mate" and "Work Your Way To A Healthy Heart". The fashion is imposing, and the editing is just state-of-the-art. The magazine just captivated me and whole experience was absolutely divine. You go U Magazine... Keep it up! Yasmine

I fell in love with your first issue! In a city where fashion is always a top priority, I find it hard to keep up with the latest, especially that I am a working woman. Your magazine is a true guide to how to tailor fashion and make it our own, which is very empowering! Your article "Once Upon a Time There Was a Little Black Dress" was a true eye opener to me, I am definitely trying on new colors now; and with your fashion pages, I know exactly where to go. Nina

THE BEAUTY OF CONTRAST IN NADA G'S LATEST COLLECTION

Inspired by personal experiences, different moods and strong feelings, the two sides of Aya - "Sobhan Allah" rings are brought together to prove that the beauty of things is in its contrast. These rings have two contrasting faces, a calligraphy face which reads "Sobhan Allah" covered with black diamonds and a plain face covered with a splash of white diamonds. This item comes in three sizes, starting price 3,915,000 LBP. Visit the new Nada G boutique in Beirut Souks to choose from a new collection designed only for you.
