Nada Ghazal first launched her eponymous brand in Lebanon and managed to expand her talented wings, thus reaching different countries worldwide. Today, this charming jewelry House is settling in another corner of the world. No, not a random one nor an ordinary one, we're talking about THAT Concept Store at Dubai's Mall of Emirates. This step allows us to put our hands on Nada Ghazal's beautiful creations in an easier way.

What makes these beauties even more special is the fact that each piece holds a story, a feeling and an experience. They represent real women with all their charming imperfections or even express political injustice. So, in short, you're not only choosing a fancy jewelry piece but you're packing a statement as well – not only with your style!
