Nada Ghazal gold and tsavorite Door of Luck necklace

Elsewhere, Ananya’s 18ct-gold Chakra bracelets in gold with ruby and emerald inlays are popular, perhaps because they echo the same themes and gems found in India’s coming-of-age rituals. For those seeking more universal symbolism, Nada Ghazal’s Doors of Opportunity collection offers talismans such as doors, keyholes and knockers: signs that “don’t belong to anyone”, says Ghazal, “but they resonate with everyone.”

Ghazal grew up in Lebanon, and this first collection since she found refuge for her business in London is inspired by a mysterious turquoise doorway folly in the garden that has become her home. “New beginnings are not about throwing out the old for the new, they’re about cherishing the old and taking it with you through the door,” she says.
